

BLM Mission

The mission of the BLM is to sustain the health, diversity, and productivity of the public lands for the use and enjoyment of present and future generations.

BLM manages public lands for multiple uses!

Our Guiding Principles

- To improve the health and productivity of the land to support the BLM multiple-use mission.
- To cultivate community-based conservation, citizen-centered stewardship, and partnership through consultation, cooperation, and communication.
- To respect, value, and support our employees, giving them resources and opportunities to succeed.
- To pursue excellence in business practices, improve accountability to our stakeholders, and deliver better services to our customers.

Administration Priorities

- Making America Great through Shared Conservation
- Getting America Back to Work
- Serving the American Family

Secretary's Priorities

- Create a conservation stewardship legacy second only to Teddy Roosevelt
- Sustainably develop our energy & natural resources
- Restore trust and be a good neighbor
- Increase revenues to support DOI and national interests
- Strike a regulatory balance
- Modernize our infrastructure

Keys to Successful Land Management

- Partnerships are important for successful on the ground solutions to issues.
- Boundary lines do not exist when you get out on the ground
- Public lands do not exist as islands.
